

E-Vehicle Laboratory (Electric Vehicle)

A new course on "Electric Vehicle Technology" has been introduced in our syllabus as common elective for both Mechanical and Electrical & Electronics Engineering programs with following objectives:

1. To prepare the students for this emerging technology.
2. To create an edge for our students over the other students in quickly adopting to this latest technology.

