3. Make a list of things you are grateful for

Taking some time to feel grateful can improve your attitude. Make a list of the ways in which you are lucky. It might include your friends or family members, your good health, your house or apartment, or any other things in your life that are going well.

The whiteboard is set on a wooden desk with a blue pen holder, pencils, and books.

Slide 32

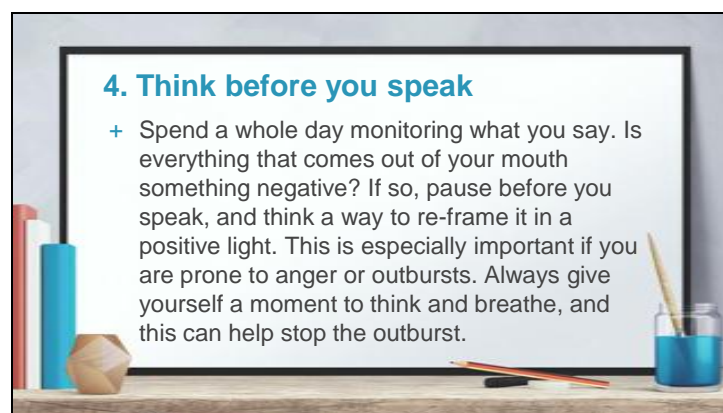

Contd..

The whiteboard shows two examples of gratitude lists. The left list is titled 'GRATITUDE' and includes 'I'm grateful for my television' and 'I'm grateful for my experience at the butterfly garden today'. The right list is titled 'I'm grateful for:' and includes 'a roof over my head', 'friends and family', 'food and water', 'internet access', 'my health', 'a warm home', and 'music'.

The whiteboard is set on a wooden desk with a blue pen holder, pencils, and books.

Slide 33

4. Think before you speak

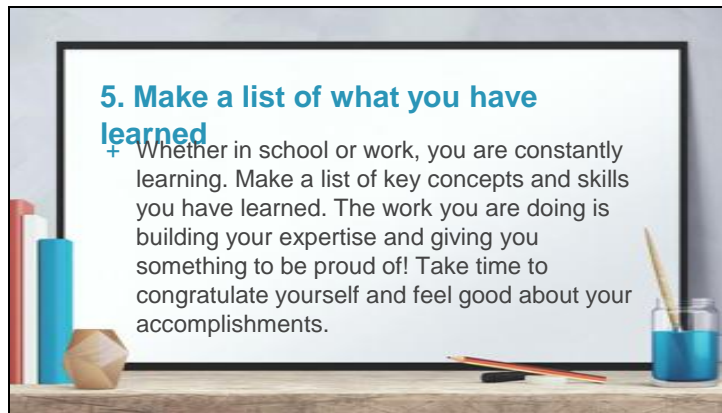

+ Spend a whole day monitoring what you say. Is everything that comes out of your mouth something negative? If so, pause before you speak, and think a way to re-frame it in a positive light. This is especially important if you are prone to anger or outbursts. Always give yourself a moment to think and breathe, and this can help stop the outburst.

The whiteboard is set on a wooden desk with a blue pen holder, pencils, and books.

6. Find the good in everyone

- + If you find yourself being too harsh or judgmental on other people, take a step back. All of us have our share of positive and negative traits. Try looking for the positive traits in your classmates or co-workers, and enjoy them for who they are.

The slide is presented on a whiteboard with a wooden desk in front of it. On the desk, there are several items: a stack of books (one red, one blue), a small brown geometric object, a pencil, and a blue pen holder containing a pencil and a pen.

Contd...

Appreciate good people. They are hard to find.

EVERYONE MAY NOT BE GOOD, BUT THERE'S ALWAYS SOMETHING GOOD IN EVERYONE. NEVER JUDGE ANYONE SHORTLY BECAUSE EVERY SAINT HAS A PAST AND EVERY SINNER HAS A FUTURE.

The slide is presented on a whiteboard with a wooden desk in front of it. On the desk, there are several items: a stack of books (one red, one blue), a small brown geometric object, a pencil, and a blue pen holder containing a pencil and a pen.

Slide 39

7. Do good deeds

- + Sometimes the smallest favors can reap the best rewards. Hold the door for someone. Let a driver in your lane when they are stuck in traffic. Compliment a classmate on their clothing or hair. Text a positive message to a friend. "Doing good" can often make you feel good, and that's the first step to developing a positive attitude.
